FEATURED EVENTS

Off the Record? A Conversation about Recording in the Workplace and in Litigation

*Wed., December 3, 3 to 5 p.m. IndyBarHQ
(2.0 General Credits, 2.0 Ethics Credit)*

During this two-hour CLE (with ethics credits), we will discuss recording issues as they arise during the lifecycle of an employment dispute. Key topics include AI notetaking and recording for day-to-day matters, during workplace investigations, at the outset of an administrative claim, and during litigation. Attendees will collaborate on applying best practices to real-world scenarios and leave this program feeling confident in their understanding of the legal and ethical implications of recording and AI notetaking.

Summary Judgment Essentials: A Guide for Early-Career Attorneys

*Tue., December 9, 4 to 5 p.m. Webinar
(1.0 General Credit)*

While most law schools introduce the concept of summary judgment, they rarely dive into the practical details that lawyers need to succeed in real-world practice. Early-lawyers need to succeed in their world practice. Early career attorneys are often handed summary judgment assignments without having had exposure to the procedural nuances, strategic thinking, or ethical considerations involved. This program fills that gap. By learning from experienced litigators and a recent federal law clerk, participants will gain actionable skills and insights to help draft stronger motions, avoid rookie mistakes, and deliver more value to their teams and clients from day one.

Solo and Small Firm Division's Favorite Things Vendor Fair and Holiday Luncheon

SPEAKER SPOTLIGHT

Beyond 34th Street: Navigating Client Capacity and Ethics Holiday Movie Series

Tue., December 2, noon to 1 p.m. IndyBarHQ
(1.0 General Credit)

Just as Miracle on 34th Street asks us to believe in Santa Claus, this CLE uses moments from the film to explore the challenges attorneys face when assessing a client's capacity.

Join us for a timely program that blends holiday spirit with practical guidance on evaluating decision making, understanding ethical duties, and navigating next steps when capacity is uncertain.

Hon. Amy Jones currently sits in Marion County Superior Court. Prior to her election, she was practicing as a solo attorney, helping her understand the nature of the practice and the conflicts solos and small firm attorneys encounter day to day.

Rebecca W. Geyer is the founder of Rebecca W. Geyer & Associates PC where her practice concentrates in estate planning, estate and trust administration, elder law, tax planning, and business services. Geyer is also an adjunct professor of elder law at the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law.
